GEN. EAGAN IS TO APOLOGIZE.

However, It Will Only Be to The Investigation Commission.

Washington, January 13—Brigadier General Charles P. Eagan will make tomorrow formal apology to the war investigation commission for the vituperative language employed by him in his discussion of the conduct of Major General Miles. There is no reason to believe, however, that he will apologize to General Miles, and it would not be surprising if he were explicitly to state that the epithets applied by him to the commander of the army still stands by this action.

General Eagan will for the present avoid court martial, the only result of his indecent vilification of General Miles which the administration foresaw last night. The course was determined for him by the president and Secretary Alger.

General Eagan does not dream of disobeying the orders of his superiors. He had under consideration from the war commission condemning his gross and insulting language, which was delivered to him at 11 o'clock this morning.

There is not one army officer with whom the correspondent talked today that did not roundly criticize General Eagan for the gross insubordination and disrespect which he showed in the statement he made yesterday and grave apprehension is felt that the effects will be far reaching.

Secretary Alger did not attempt to communicate with General Miles today, nor did the commanding general make any move to see the secretary of war. The last time General Miles was in the office of the secretary of war was on the occasion of his departure for Santiago en route for Porto Rico.

General Miles said today: "I did not tell the commission all the facts which I had discovered by my own investigation."

CARNEGIE'S OFFER.

To Pay $20,000,000 if Independence of Philippines Is Conceded.

Washington, D. C., January 13—Andrew Carnegie has offered to pay the $20,000,000 to Spain if the United States will grant independence to the islands.

MANILA SITUATION

CRITICAL

Manila, Jan. 13—The situation here is undoubtedly critical but Major Gen. Otis has it all in hand and there is no such certainty of trouble as many believe. The rebels are concentrated on the outskirts of town and their leaders have issued strict orders that they shall act only on the defensive.

An accident might precipitate trouble, but the idea of a rebel attack upon Manila is ridiculous as the Americans absolutely control the position.

Agnaldo has repudiated the second manifesto in reply to the proclamation of Gen. Otis, which was recalled on its first appearance but it has proved ineffectual.

On Wednesday a false alarm due to trivial incidents occurring simultaneously in opposite parts of the city led to a general call to the United States forces. In fifteen minutes the entire city was covered.

The promptitude of the Americans while it created a scare for that moment, effectually restored confidence throughout Manila and dispelled the excitement due to a passing fear on the part of the citizens that an outbreak was imminent.

It is possible that the Filipinos after the diplomatic conferences that have been had between the representatives of Gen. Otis and Agnaldo have finally come to understand that the cautious and conservative policy of the Americans is not due to fear and that they will accept the inevitable with good grace.

It is evident that at present they are unable to appreciate the full meaning of the independence demand and that when they do understand its extent the American propositions will be acceptable.

Madrid Jan. 13.—The government has received the following official dispatch from Manila.

The American troops who were ordered to Iloilo have mutinied and refused to proceed. Gen. Miller has been ordered to return. All the American troops have been ordered to concentrate here. The situation is of the gravest kind.

Madrid, Jan. 13—According to dispatches received here the American domination in the Philippines is "limited to Manila Bay." All other points except Mindanao, where the Spaniards remain, are in the hands of the insurgents. One dispatch says: "The American volunteers are disheartened by the climate and bad food and are anxious to return home." Berlin, Jan. 13.—The correspondent of the Associated Press, after a thorough investigation of the report that Germany is aiding the Filipinos furnishing them with war material, learns that it is absolutely baseless.

SUCCESSOR TO ROMERO.

General Torres Is to Be Urged for the Place.

El Paso, Texas, January 13.—From a high Mexican official here today it is learned that Governor Corral of Sonora and Governor Canedo of the State of Sinaloa, Mexico, who arrived here from Sonora, Mexico, yesterday and left the city the same evening for Mexico City, accompanied by General F. Torres of Sonora, are going to Mexico's capital for the purpose of urging President Diaz to appoint General Torres to succeed the late M. Romero as Mexico's ambassador to Washington. General Torres was once governor of Sonora and now represents that State in the Mexican congress. He is a very able man and an eloquent orator, who speaks English fluently. Government officials in Juarez believe that General Torres has been called to Mexico City by President Diaz to be tendered the ambassadorship.

HON. WM. L. WILSON.

He Will Be the Next President of Yale University.

Morgantown, W. Va., January 13.—Hon. William L. Wilson will be the next president of Yale university at a salary of $25,000 a year. The board of trustees has not made public its selection of him, but a private letter from Mr. Wilson to Prof. R. C. Berkley of this place gives the information. Mr. Wilson is now president of Washington and Lee university, at Lexington, Va., and will not assume his new honor until the next school year.

Mr. Wilson represented this (the second) district in congress for twelve years, and is best known for his advocacy of the free trade theory, which finally led to his defeat by Congressman Dayton in 1894, after a memorable political battle. His defeat, it is said, cost the republican National committee $50,000.

After his defeat for congress Mr. Wilson was appointed postmaster general by President Cleveland, and after the expiration of his administration he was elected to the presidency of Washington and Lee university.
